Regarding the article “Identification of S-locus F-box Protein Sequences in Diploid Potato, Solanum okadae, via Degenerate PCR” (10.21769/BioProtoc.5328, published on June 5, 2025), the authors wish to amend the author list to include Dr Ranjan Swarup and Dr Timothy P. Robbins, both from the University of Nottingham. Their names were inadvertently omitted at the time of submission despite their substantive contributions to the study. Both are correctly listed as co-authors on the associated NCBI GenBank submissions (accession numbers OP947671, OP947670, OP903962). The updated author list is as follows: Amar Hundare (A.H.), Ranjan Swarup (R.S.), and Timothy P. Robbins (T.P.R.).

The authors also wish to update the Author Contributions section in the original article.

Updated author contributions: Conceptualization was carried out by T.P.R. Primer design guidance and scientific oversight were provided by R.S. A.H. designed the primers and performed all experimental work. A.H., R.S., and T.P.R. jointly contributed to data analysis and interpretation as well as to the preparation and submission of sequence data and the manuscript.
